Applications for vendors and exhibitors for the Myrtle Beach Freedom Weekend are now being accepted. Our inaugural event, the South Carolina Patriot Expo, held in Columbia this past June, was a resounding success as vendors and exhibitors were brought together for a day full of networking and a raising of awareness of the real fight for freedom and threats to our liberties which we are facing, right now, on all fronts -- in all aspects of our lives.

The purpose of the Myrtle Beach Freedom Weekend is to switch gears from being solely a networking event to a family-oriented educational one, where opportunities are provided for access to, and an understanding of the principles and values behind the framing of the Constitution, which are otherwise rapidly disappearing in today's society. Our goal is to acquaint and re-acquaint those among us, young and old, with these values and principles through the Making of America seminar, sponsored by the National Center for Constitutional Studies.

You will have the rare opportunity to expose and promote your business, practice or related group to patriots from the Carolinas and adjoining states during two days full of activities, lectures and break-out sessions. Some of you may also wish to participate as speakers for these sessions. At this time, opportunities to secure one of these sessions are available, but please act now as we expect these break-out slots to go quickly.

We anticipate a great turnout, as people, hungry for answers, converge on a true patriot's weekend in Myrtle Beach in November. Seriously consider this as one rare occasion to connect with such an audience.
